PMCO 2019 - Wilderness Adventure Challenge 野外歷奇比賽

“Proficiency in Map reading, Campcraft and Orienteering”

Announcement of Result

Twelve teams from various Wings joined The PMCO 2019 competing for the award. Due to continuous adverse weather, the competition has been called off on Day 1 evening. Undoubtedly, it was a hard decision to make, but safety of the participants always outweigh any other factors.

Participants have shown their perseverance, courage and team spirit through competing in tasks such as Map reading and Orienteering under inclement weather conditions. Through the challenges our cadets or officer trainees have gained not only skills that simply cannot be realized indoors, but also experience in withstanding adversities with their teammates. It was perhaps once in a lifetime expedition training experience we all learned together.

The marks of the competition are counted according to the tasks that have been carried out. The members of Judge Panel are listed below:

Sqn Ldr	Patrick C W LEE
Sqn Ldr	KWOK Y
Flt Lt	Jackie S K CHAN
Fg Off	Philip C Y WONG
WO	MAN K H Kevin
CI	AU YEUNG Y C Tommy

We are pleased to announce the result of PMCO 2019 as follows:

Award	Unit	Overall Marks
PMCO 2019 Champion:	No 313 Sqn	60.3
1st Runner Up:	No 602 Sqn	59.6
2nd Runner Up:	No 506 Sqn	56.6

The next PMCO Award will be a 2-day wilderness adventure challenge in coming winter (Tentative: End-February 2020). Most challenges will be similar as in the past, but you must compete better or faster. Meantime, please request your EIs to provide more wilderness training. We also encourage interested members aged over 18 to join the coming Expedition Instructor Training Course and be part of the team that making the competition happens!

Thank you very much and see you all again in PMCO 2020!
