

HONG KONG AIR CADET CORPS

No. 55 Junior Non-Commissioned Officer Training Course Rules and regulations

1. Candidate must strictly follow the C&C of the corps.
2. All candidates should also have outstanding attainment in the aspects of attendance, punctuality, appearance, conduct as well as performance.
3. Candidates must obey the instruction of the instructors; observe the rules and notices, at all times conducts themselves in an honest, mature and responsible manner. Misbehaved candidate will be dismissed. Thorough enquiry and report will be done and sent to his/her OC Sqn and other parties concerned.
4. Full attendance – 100% is compulsory required. In addition, candidates should be punctual in attending every session. DEDUCTION of marks of the grand total will be made for latecomers on TWO-MINUTE-ONE-MARK basis.
5. Applicants who have already known they are suffering from disease or injuries and may need rest for a reasonable period of time or may not attend any physical exercise should not apply this course.
6. If candidate is suffering from any diseases or injuries during the course period and could not attend the remaining course, he/she will be assigned to the next JNCOTC.
7. Candidate must submit the legal medical certificate if report sick.
8. Candidate who had been detected or observed any misbehaviors or any conflict to C&C of the corps will fail in this course and cannot apply next JNCOTC.
9. Candidate who absents the course without prior notice and reasonable explanation will risk deprivation of the right to apply for the next JNCOTC. Reasonable explanation must be accepted by course OIC before every training day.
10. Type of uniform subjects to the course order or course briefing.
11. Candidate must pass every subject of the course. Anyone who fails any subject will fail in the whole course.

Remarks: Course committee reserves the right to convert, adjust or enforce any rules and regulation of this course.