Summer Training Camp 2010 'The Rendezvous' - Adventure Development -

The Summer Training Camp (the Camp) is one of Hong Kong Air Cadet Corps' (the Corps') core training programmes. The Camp is designed to enhance leadership, interpersonal skills as well as discipline of cadets. Through participation in planned activities, campers will be interacting continuously with their peers in an outdoor environment for four days. They will also be experiencing a regimen of focused training and put to face a series of challenges.

Senior members and professional trainers will be on site to assist and guide the camper through the training regimen and challenges. Moreover, the Corps will take this opportunity to promote environmental protection and encourage cadets to explore and understand the world around them.
