Amended Cadet Classification Requirements on Aviation Education

The current cadet classification system requires cadets to, among other requirements, successfully complete certain aviation education (AE) training. The Aviation Education Wing has been tasked to review the cadet classification requirements on AE. Subsequent to the review, this memo serves to announce the amended cadet classification requirements on AE (“the amended requirements”).

2. Major amendments will be made to the Senior and Staff Cadet Classifications. At current, AAEP subjects are the only path to fulfill the requirements on AE for these two Classifications. An AE credit system will be established to introduce alternative means to fulfill such requirements. A summary of changes is available in Appendix I. Meanwhile, the AE credit system is available in Appendix II.

3. The amended requirements will come into effect on 1 February 2017. Qualifications obtained before this date will be recognized under the amended requirements.

4. No change to the format of the Cadet Training Records Book will be required.

5. For enquiries, please feel free to contact the undersigned by email (hkacc.aewing@gmail.com).

Staff Cadet Lanyard	4 Advanced Aviation Education Programme (AAEP) subjects	Obtained 4 credits from the AE credit system, in addition to the 4 credits already obtained for the award of Senior Cadet Badge

*effective on 1 February 2017

Details of the AE credit system are available in Appendix II of this memo.

Appendix II – Aviation Education Credit System

Introduction

The Aviation Education (AE) Credit System serves to determine the requirements on AE that are applicable to the Senior and Staff Cadet Classifications.

Credit System

(1) Qualification Category A

- Maximum credit to be received under Category A: 8

Qualification	Number of Credit(s)
AAEP and AAEP(H) (Note 1)	1 credit for each subject passed
Pilot Badge	8 credits
Passing all theory examinations required for Private Pilot Licence or a higher qualification in Hong Kong or an ICAO member state (Note 2)	8 credits
Qualified Aviation Instructor	4 credits
Successful completion of Cathay Dragon Aviation Certificate Programme (CDACP), or its predecessor	2 credits

(2) Qualification Category B

- Maximum credit to be received under Category B: 4

Qualification	Number of Credit(s)
Aircrew Badge obtained for solo flight on a powered aircraft (Note 2)	4 credits
Glider Pilot Badge	4 credits
Advanced Glider Aviator Badge (Note 3)	3 credits
Glider Aviator Badge (Note 3)	2 credits

Notes

1. Subjects of AAEP and AAEP(H) are (1) Aerodynamics, (2) Aircraft General Knowledge, (3) Operation, Performance & Planning, (4) Flight Rules & Air Laws, (5) Navigation, (6) Meteorology, (7) Radio Communications, and (8) Human Performance & Limitation. One credit could only be obtained from each of the above subjects, regardless of whether the pass result was obtained from AAEP, AAEP(H) or both.
2. Evidence of the qualification shall be submitted to OC AE Wg for vetting.
3. If the cadet applied for the glider aviator / advanced glider aviator badge via non-HKACC glider operations, the equivalence is subject to the recommendation from OC G Flt and approval from OC AE Wg. To ascertain the knowledge level of the cadet, assessment / interview may be required. Once the badge application is approved, the cadet will be eligible for the corresponding number of credits.
