BTEC Level 2 Diploma in Aviation Studies for Air Cadets 2023 – Application Call

The first aviation-related BTEC qualification in Hong Kong — “Edexcel BTEC Level 2 Diploma in Aviation Studies for Air Cadets” accredited to the Qualifications and Credit Framework (QCF), UK is now calling for applications for the 2023-24 Cohort. The purpose of this qualification is to help our members to prepare for further aviation-related qualifications or an aviation career. A majority of these units are technical in nature and provide a good grounding in basic aviation engineering principles. Great emphasis is placed on learning and further development which aims to provide the learners with an additional qualification not available to them through the traditional school-based educational system.

2. Details are shown below:
